

HAVE YOU MOVED

Complete the “Alien Change of Address Form” (Form EOIR-22/IC), and give a copy to the Court and Department of Homeland Security at 525 W. Van Buren, Suite 701, Chicago, IL 60607.

DO YOU NEED TO CHANGE COURTS?

If you need to move your case to another court, you must make a “Motion to Change Venue” in writing, and file the original with the Court where your case is currently located. File a copy with the Department of Homeland Security at 525 W. Van Buren, Suite 701, Chicago, IL 60607. Also keep a copy for yourself.

The motion should contain the following information:

- The date and time of your next scheduled hearing.
- Admission or denial of the allegations in the Notice to Appear (Form I-862) given to you by the government.
- Give a country of removal (i.e. your home country) or state if you do not want to give a country of removal. You do not have to give a country of removal, but you must tell the Court that.
- List the applications and forms of relief you will apply for, if any.
- Your new address and telephone number.
- Explain, in as much detail as possible, why you want to change courts.
- Include documents and evidence to prove that you have moved.
- Complete the “Alien Change of Address Form” (Form EOIR-33/IC).

UNTIL YOUR MOTION TO CHANGE VENUE IS DECIDED YOU MUST APPEAR AT ALL SCHEDULED HEARINGS

Alien's Change of Address Form/ Immigration Court

If you move or change your phone number, the law requires you to file this Change of Address Form with the Immigration Court. You must file this form within five (5) working days of a change in your address or phone number. You will only receive notification as to the time, date, and place of hearing or other official correspondence at the address which you provide. Changes in address or telephone numbers communicated through any means except this form, e.g., pleadings, motion papers, correspondence, telephone calls, applications for relief, etc. will not be recognized and the address information and record will remain unchanged.

Failure to appear at any hearing before an Immigration Judge, when notice of that hearing or other official correspondence was served on you or sent to the address you provided, may result in one or more of the following actions:

- If you are not already detained, you may be taken into custody by the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) and held for further action; and

If you are in removal proceedings:

Your hearing may be held in your absence under Section 240 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA), and an order of removal may be entered against you. Furthermore, you may become ineligible for the following forms of relief from removal for a period of 10 years after the date of the entry of the final order:

1. Voluntary Departure as provided for in Section 240B of the INA;
2. Cancellation of Removal as provided for in Section 240A of the INA;
3. Adjustment of Status or Change of Status as provided for in Section(s) 245, 248, or 249 of the INA.

If you are in deportation proceedings:

Your hearing may be held in your absence under Section 242B of the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA) (1995), and an order of deportation may be entered against you. Furthermore, you may become ineligible for the following forms of relief from deportation for a period of 5 years after the date of the entry of the final order:

1. Voluntary Departure as provided for in Section 242(b) of the INA (1995);
2. Suspension of Deportation or Voluntary Departure as provided for in Section 244 of the INA (1995);
3. Adjustment of Status or Change of Status as provided for in Section(s) 245, 248, or 249 of the INA (1995).

If you are in exclusion proceedings:

Your application for admission to the United States may be considered withdrawn, and your hearing may be held in your absence and an order of exclusion and deportation entered against you.
